

THE PASCUA YAQUI TRIBE

COURT OF APPEALS

---

Practice Directive no. 2

On the submission of proposed orders before the
Court of Appeals

Adopted and valid as of August 30,2009

PREAMBLE

The Chief Justice for the Pascua Yaqui Court of Appeals (hereinafter "Chief Justice"), in his efforts to improve the efficiency and accessibility of the Court of Appeals, hereby issues this Practice Directive for the submission of proposed orders before the Pascua Yaqui Court of Appeals.

DIRECTIVE

Any practitioner applying to the Court of Appeals for an order shall accompany their application with a proposed order.

The proposed order shall:

- include a header with the names of the parties and the case number; and,
- set forth the relief requested.

The court and its judges are not bound by the proposed order and may issue findings of their own.

Only an order signed by a judge and issued by the court administrator shall have binding effects on the parties.

ENTRY INTO FORCE

This Practice Directive shall be valid as of September 1, 2009.

This 4th day of September, 2009.

James Hopkins
Chief Justice